

CSR Initiative “Sashakt Nari: Empowering Women, Enabling Livelihoods” Successfully Organized at FCPLG

The FORE Centre for Political Leadership and Governance (FCPLG), in collaboration with SMAS Auto Leasing India Pvt. Ltd., successfully organized a CSR initiative titled “Sashakt Nari – Empowering Women, Enabling Livelihoods” on 30th March 2026 at the FCPLG Office.

The initiative marked a significant step towards women empowerment by promoting sustainable livelihood opportunities and supporting economic self-reliance among women. The program witnessed active participation and was executed smoothly, contributing meaningfully to FCPLG’s outreach and social impact objectives.

The event was graced by several distinguished dignitaries, including:

- * Dr. B.B.L. Madhukar – Chairman, FORE Society
- * Hon’ble MLA Mr. Satish Upadhyay
- * Mr. Hidenaga Aoki – Chairman & Managing Director, SMAS Auto Leasing India Pvt. Ltd.
- * Prof. Emeritus (Dr.) Devendra Pathak, Secretary, FORE Society
- * Prof. (Dr.) Abhay Anand Tiwari – CEO, FCPLG

Their valuable presence and insightful addresses added significance to the occasion and reinforced the importance of empowering women through skill development and livelihood support initiatives.

As part of the initiative, sewing machines were distributed to beneficiaries with the objective of creating sustainable livelihood opportunities and enabling women to build a brighter and more independent future for themselves and their families.

The program received an encouraging response and positive media attention, highlighting the impactful work being undertaken by FCPLG in the area of social responsibility and community development.
