FCPLG Host Resource Persons Meeting to Strengthen Political Leadership & Governance

The FORE Centre for Political Leadership and Governance (FCPLG) hosted a Resource Persons Meeting on 9th September 2026, bringing together distinguished leaders, policymakers, academicians, governance practitioners, political consultants and social-sector professionals.

The meeting focused on strengthening FCPLG's learning ecosystem and making its programmes more practical, contemporary and practitioner-led, with emphasis on Political Leadership, Election Management, Governance, Public Policy and Public Affairs.

The eminent participants discussed key aspects of the evolving political landscape including election management, voter strategies, governance, leadership, communication, and youth participation. They also highlighted the importance of connecting academic learning with real-world political practice.

The meeting featured Prof. (Dr.) Abhay Anand Tiwari, CEO, FCPLG and former Cabinet Minister; Retd. IAS Officer; Member, U.P. State Commission for Women; Harvard Professor; Political Analyst and Consultant and the team members of FCPLG.

The engagement reflects FCPLG's commitment to developing a dynamic, experiential and future-ready learning ecosystem for aspiring political leaders and governance professionals.
